THE PROCLAMATION.

Saint Patrick, slave to Milcho of the herds
Of Ballymena, sleeping, heard these words:
Arise, and flee
Out from the land of bondage, and be free!"

Glad as a soul in pain, who hears from heaven
The angels singing of his sins forgiving,
And, wandering, sees
Hi prison opening to their golden keys,

He rose a man who lid him down a slave,
Shook from his locks the ashes of the grave,
And onward trod
Into the glorious liberty of God

He cast the symbols of his shame away;
And passing where the sleeping Milcho lay,
Though back and limb
Smarted with wrong, he prayed "God pardon him!"

So went he forth: but in God's time he came
To light on Ulltine's hills a holy flame:
And, dying, gave
The land a saint that lost him as a slave.

O dark, sad millions, patiently and dumb
Waiting for God, your hour, at last, has come.
And freedom's song
Breaks the long silence of your night of wrong!

Arise and feel shake off the vile restraint
Of age! but like Ballymena's saint,
The oppressor spare,
Heap only on his head the coals of prayer!

Go forth, like him! like him, return again,
To bless the land whereon in bitter pain
Ye toiled at first,
And heal with freedom what your slavery egreed!

Miscellany.

THE WELL IN THE ROCK.

"I guess we'll have to turn in there a little while, mother, I must rest my limbs a bit, till the Lord shows us where to turn about, for Seth Rogers will hustle me out without honor Massy, now that he's got the law on his side. You know he ain't got no more heart than a stone."

"Don't say that, Isaac, of any man. Your poor dead father used to tell me he'd seen a good deal of the rough side of human nature in his life, but he never found a man's heart so hard that there warn't a tender spot hidden somewhere away down in it. Massy, he used to say to me, it may seem just as bleak and hard as a rock of old did to the Israelites, but depend on't there is a well of water down deep in it somewhere, if only the right Moses was at hand to smite it."

"Well mother, in most cases father was in the right of it, and it don't become his son to contradict his words, now he is dead and gone—especially when he was sich a God-fearing man; but I can't think there is any Moses on airth that could bring water out of sich a rock as Seth Rogers's heart."

"Don't be too sartin, Isaac. God never put the well there for nothing, and I kinder reckon I see his hand here. Anyhow, I'll try to morrow."

"Try what, grammy?" exclaimed Mr. and Mrs. Woolcoot.

"Try to find the well in the rock of Seth Rogers's heart," answered the woman, putting her pipe in her mouth and getting up.

"Why grammy, ain't you mad struck?" asked her amazed son, while his family stood looking at the old woman in dumb amazement.

"Not a bit, Isaac; I know all what I'm about, though I shall keep my own counsel, and not tell you one word of what brought me over to-night. Only just trust in the Lord, and cast your care on Him."

"O grammy, do stay and have a cup of tea.—We've got some real fresh."

"Not to-night, Massy," shaking her head and hobbling across the room. "I've got to be alone, to hold counsel with myself; only don't forget what I said about casting your care on the Lord."

Seth Rogers put down his scythe, took off his straw hat, and fanned his forehead with his straw hat, and wipe his forehead with his blue and white cotton handkerchief. It was a warm day, although it was wearing toward the middle of October, and the farmer had been hard at work for the last three hours, mowing on a strip of salt hay in some low meadow land about a quarter of a mile east of the little red house where old "General Woolcoot's widdler," as the neighbors used to call her, resided. He had a coarse, hard physiognomy, a large, stalwart, rugged frame, beetling eyebrows, with dark gloomy-looking gray eyes, and his iron gray locks hung over his forehead, brown and wrinkled with labor, for Seth Rogers had not yet passed the prime of his manhood. He was a stern, lonely man, and his neighbors said his heart was as hard as his face. All his near relatives were dead, and there was no heart of man or woman or child in the world, which beat with one throb of love or pity for Seth Rogers. He was a widower, and childless, for he had laid his wife in her youth, in the village graveyard, and he lived in the great brown house by the creek, with only his hired man and his old housekeeper—a man whose creed and whose Gospel was worldly gain—whose only ambition was to add to his broad lands, a man without fear of God or love to humanity! Yet the old neighbors shook their heads and said it was not always so—that Seth Rogers was a pleasant little boy, and that he had a praying mother and one little sister with the face of an angel.—They could still remember the clusters of her shining curls that waved in the winds like the golden rod in September, and her eyes deep and blue as the skies in which the midnight stars are set. There are a few old women in West Farms who still grew warm and eloquent when they spoke of the wondrous beauty of the sweet child, Mary Rogers, and they said her brother, who was four years her senior, had cared for with a tenderness, and watched over her with a pride and love which were like those of a mother over her first born. But Mary's beauty had never blossomed in womanhood.—One time, a score and half of years ago, a company of Indians had made a descent on the villages of West Farms, seated at the foot of the hills. Trembling women had clustered together with hushed breaths and haggard faces in the cottages, and at last a company of the bravest men had gathered together, shouldered their arms, and gone out, in the name of the God of battles, to fight for their wives, their children and their homes. Jedediah Woolcoot led this little company of brave men, and earned thereby the title of General. They soon succeeded in routing the Indians who had stationed themselves at the Northern part of the village, and the white men lost but two of their number.—But that night Mary Rogers took her death cold; for the child, hearing the war cry of the Indians, which started her from her slumbers, had sprung suddenly out of bed, rushed out doors in her night dress, and remained for nearly an hour crouched down on the damp grass under the apple tree, convulsed with terror.—In less than six months afterwards Mary's beauty lay under the summer grass, and her broken hearted mother followed her a little later. So, with all his money, the neighbors affirmed that Seth Rogers has had a hard time of it, for it was a terrible thing to have one's kith and kin cut off from them.

"Seth, Rogers, I want to have a few minutes talk with you."

The farmer started, and looked around in amazement, as he saw old Mrs. Woolcoot hobbling slowly towards him, just as he was putting his handkerchief in his hat.

"I see you from my back door a movin', and I knew you was a good deal interested in what I'd got to say, so I concluded to get over, tho' it was quite a walk, as old folks' limbs ain't as spry as young ones."

"No, they ain't, that's a fact," responded Seth, for want of something better to say; and then he remembered his claim on Isaac Woolcoot's cottage and concluded the old woman had come to confer about that, and the hard muscles of his hard face settled down in iron rigidity. There was an oak tree very near.—The old woman dropped down under this, and laid her crutch at her feet. Seth Rogers stood a little way off, silent and gloomy, his arms folded on his breast.

"Seth," slowly commenced the old woman, "I came across something yesterday morning, in my garret, that belonged to Mary—dear little Mary?"

Ah, those words must have been the rod that smote the granite rock, for the man's face changed suddenly, and there was eager curiosity in his tones.

"What was it, Mrs. Woolcoot?"

"Won't you set down here under the tree, and I'll tell you, for I am an old woman and it tuckers me out to talk so loud."

He sat down on the grass, under the cool shade of the oak tree, close to the old woman.

"It cut me up, Seth, dreffully comin' across that air. I jest sot down and cried like a little baby, for it jest brought back the time when Mary's little golden head used to go a diddin' and a dancin' long side of my Temperance—that, I trust in the Lord, is in heaven this blessed day—to the school house where the four roads meet. Was there every a poetier critchur set foot on the ground, with that face full of dimples, and the smiles cotchin' apart the lips and kindlin the eyes and a pair of cheeks that a rose in the meadders was'nt to be mentioned by the said of?"

FEMALE PREACHING.

Our attention was recently attracted to the following paragraph in a newspaper which we were perusing: "A female preacher occupies a pulpit in Pittsburg, preaching statedly to a congregation of character and intelligence."—Well, thought we, this may be so, but go with us to the well-regulated household of any frugal housewife, and in the careful mother of a growing family I will point out to you a more eloquent and superior preacher to her of Pittsburg. God made everything in perfect keeping with its purpose, and with the object for which it was and is created. Now, had it have been in accordance with the decree of Divine Providence for woman to have occupied our pulpits and other masculine positions of late usurped by the other sex, they would have been created very differently, and the preservation and multiplication of the human race would have been carried on under some other system than the present one of procreation. This is a simple, plain, and truthful proposition, about which the wayfarer though a fool need n't err. Upon the more delicately sensitive system of woman the Almighty has stamped certain weaknesses of organization that show as clearly as the sun gives his light in the heavens, what is the proper sphere of woman. Her place is as clearly defined by every circumstance of her creation, as any fact known to the race. Never can there be a more eloquent preacher than the patient, industrious wife and mother as she "ordereth her household aright." A wife that is a wife—a help-meet indeed, is the sublimest epitome of divine truth. She it is to whom future generations are to be submitted to be trained at the time of life when their impressible natures are most susceptible of outward impressions. The women of any age stamp always their own character upon the rising generation. Had it have been the purpose of Divine Providence that the other sex should have occupied posts of service now claimed exclusively by us, who can doubt, for a moment, but that they would have been very differently made—for God could have created them as he pleased, thus or otherwise. There was no necessity upon Him to make them in one way or another. To the Almighty there is no law but His own volition. No, you of the other sex, the pulpit, the forum, the army, are not the places for you to exhibit those qualities which alone can secure for you our hearts and our affections. A Joan of Arc, is a historical prodigy, which we read of as we would of Barnum's Woolly Horse, but viewed as a woman she is a monster. She would be the last woman whom a man would select to love. Whenever a man loves a woman he does so simply because she is a woman—and she recedes from his affection just in the same ratio that she approximates to the masculine attributes of our own sex. A woman can never be too entirely a woman, as a man can never be too fully a man. To see a woman patiently training the immortal beings whom she has aided in bringing into the world—beings endowed with reason and closely allied to Divinity itself—to see, we say, such a woman giving all her best energies to this glorious task is to behold the sublimest spectacle that the world is capable of affording. Her occupation thus has nature on her side—otherwise, and we revolt at the unnaturalness of her occupations. Her throne she inherits truly, but it is a domestic one. Her sceptre is a powerful one, but it is the distaff and not the sword. Her profession is that of preaching, but her congregation of hearers is to be found in the domestic circle and not in the church. In the domestic circle, patiently abiding as well as doing the will of Heaven, as wife or mother or sister or daughter, she has reached the pinnacle of all the real greatness that ever can surround the lovely name of woman in this world. To behold her else, is to look upon a monster against whom the truest instincts of our nature revolt. It is not in the public arena of the pulpit or of politics, nor amid the din of arms that we should look for the truest type of woman, but in using all the gifts of which she is possessed to rear in our domestic circle the truest type of manhood, out of the material entrusted to her charge.—It is not in the Fanny Wrights or Rev. Lucy Stones even, nor yet in a Semiramis or a Boadicea, that we recognize woman in the performance of her true mission. The mother who reared Washington did more for mankind than all the heroines who ever figured on field or forum. There never was indeed a truly great man, who did not have a superior mother—superior in endowments and in all the domestic virtues.

"Happy he
With such a mother! faith in womankind
Beats with his blood, and trust in all things high
Comes easy to him, and though he trip and fall,
He shall not find his soul with clay."

It is stated in the money article of a New York paper that a Wall street broker recently expressed himself disgusted at the ease with which money is made from day to day. Some of the most fortunate operators have an absolute surfeit of success

Local News Items.

PORTSMOUTH GROVE.—The U. S. General Hospital establishment at the Grove has, we learn, been placed under Quarantine regulations on account of the existence there of some cases of the small pox. The Town Council of Portsmouth have also taken action in regard to the matter, and interdicted communication with the Grove, under a penalty of $100. This will interfere somewhat though not entirely with the marketing from Portsmouth with the Hospital, as some method will doubtless be adopted both convenient and safe by which milk, butter, vegetables, &c., will be supplied. We are glad to learn also that the cases are of a mild type, and doing well.

BROAD STREET.—A gentleman, residing on this street, and who is a tax payer, requested us to call attention to the condition of this very public thoroughfare as shockingly bad. He suggested that it would be a good plan for our City Council to take a ride from the Court House up to the head of Broad Street. It would be well for them in so doing, however, to lay in a good stock of provisions, as the journey can not be performed hastily, and the time occupied might render a few refreshments acceptable. It is doubtful whether a street so public as this one is, could be found in any other city in so impassable a condition.

NEW EVENING PAPER.—The Evening Bulletin was issued for the first time yesterday from the office of the Providence Journal. It is about half the size of the Journal, and a copy was bulletined in front of Tilley's newspaper depot, immediately after the arrival of the Steamer Perry.—We have since received a copy from friend Tilley who will have them daily for sale. As the Bulletin promises to be of the right stamp we wish it all success.

REPORTED LOST.—We regret to learn from the latest advices from New Orleans, that the Gunboat Wittons is reported to have been sunk by the south battery at Port Hudson. Master's mate Alfred Sturgis of this city was on duty on board of her, and has been ever since she first sailed. She has been kept in active service ever since her completion. She first sailed from New York one year ago this month, and has not been North since that time. She was in charge of Lieut. Thornton when last reported.

SICK AND WOUNDED.—Twenty-three sick and wounded Rhode Islanders arrived here this morning under charge of Dr. Mulford. They were entertained with refreshments of hot coffee, pies, &c., by Messrs. A. Manuel and R. W. Chappell, much to the satisfaction of the invalids. They were taken to the Grove by the Steamer Perry.

THE SMALL POX IS MIDDLETOWN.—We regret to learn that this disease is gradually spreading among the inhabitants of Middletown. The wife of Mr. Amos Peckham, died yesterday of this disorder and two more cases are reported. There is not so much restriction on the communication between our towns as prudence would seem to demand.

Our Army Correspondence.

FROM CAMP PAROLE, ANNAPOLIS, MD.

CAMP PAROLE, Annapolis Md., Jan. 22d 1863.

Dear News:—To-day makes a fortnight since our arrival at this place but nothing has occurred which is interesting to the home public, nor is anything likely to occur; we are here neither citizens nor soldiers, have no duties to perform as our oath forbids us even drilling, the discipline of the camp is exceedingly lax and as might be expected rowdyism is rampant and gambling and drunkenness, the daily occupation, while the most serious rows frequently occur; a large part of those who come here immediately run away home and many never come back.

It is rather more comfortable here than camping in the field as we have Sibley tents with stoves in them and get plenty to eat, but these advantages are more than counterbalanced by our state of forced idleness.

We get the papers here and watch the movements of the army with great interest but patriotism is sadly at a discount.

I have been in Annapolis once where I attended the Episcopal Church for the first time since leaving Rhode Island; it is a handsome church, as usual unpaid for and a fashionable and to appearance a wealthy congregation.

Annapolis I understand is considered the only finished city in the Union; it has a Navy Yard, state Capitol &c; it is a very small place and has a few fine old buildings which seem to date from Revolutionary days; a Pennsylvania regiment is stationed here as Provost Guard and everything is intensely military, but the tone of the people as everywhere in Maryland is dubious.

The Parole Camp is situated about a mile from the city on the same peninsula which runs out into Chesapeake Bay and joins the mainland on the west and northwest: it is a good camping ground, dry and well supplied with wood and water: it is about half a mile long and a quarter wide consisting of Sibley and wall tents arranged on streets: it is divided into battallions and companies: all men from the same state of all branches of the service being put together; the company in which I am embraces all Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Vermont soldiers.

The Hospital accommodations are good as there are a sufficient number of large new tents and I presume men get better care than they can possibly do in the field: connected with the Hospital is a reading room open to all soldiers which is a great luxury although the reading matter is neither new nor select. There are also held prayer meetings and Sunday services in this room and occasionally Temperance lectures.

An exchange of prisoners has just taken place which however included none delivered into our lines since the 1st of January; commencing with the lot of which we formed a part there have about two thousand come here from Richmond alone since New Years day: there are now expected some four thousand who were taken at Murfreesboro.

A day or two ago the paymaster made a visit here but the late arrival not having been mustered in at the commencement of the month received none of his favors; we see by the papers that the army is at last being paid off and it is time indeed, for most of them have been waiting from six to ten months.

The last two nights we have had a most violent storm of wind and rain, which had enough here must have been terrible to the army in the field and perhaps still worse for our navy: I fear we shall hear of great disaster; in general the winter has been exceedingly mild.

There have just arrived seven hundred of the Murfreesboro' prisoners. STORY.

New York Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26, 1863.

To The News:—We are having an unusual overflow of infantile musical talents in our circles. The opera has departed our midst, and in place wonderful child genius is delighting cultivated musical ears. First came Willie Pape with his marvellous touch and surpassing command over the piano. Then the child of music, Therese Carreno, was the delight of the Metropolis. But now the lately arrived Bretto children attract and charm. So young, so great artists, so possessed as it were with the inspiration of music! Little Richard, having only seven years of life hanging o'er him is a marvel upon that difficult instrument the cornet a piston. Old players are enthusiastic. He is pronounced truly a genius. And the delicious strains from the violin invoked by Bernard, eleven years old, cause master players to hold up hands in admiration. These boys, at a time when other boys are about having the rudiments of learning beat into them, are blessed with such a nature that intuition not ordinary processes serve them. Great careers are open for both. New York has set the seal of approval, and opened a fame. Several most successful concerts have been given, and the utmost praise bestowed.

Rev. Mathew Hale Smith—"Burleigh" of the Boston Journal—is giving a very popular course of Sunday evening lectures at the Athenæum Brooklyn, upon the perils of city life. These discourses are attracting considerable attention, mostly from young people, for whom they were designed. Most of them are upon practical duties, business trials, temptations, and how to meet them with a christian manly spirit. The Reverend gentleman is a pleasing graphic speaker as well as writer, and deals with his subjects like a man in earnest.

Sensations are thick around us now. New York cannot live without its regular sensations. Between the famous "ghost" of Twenty-seventh street, and the fast approaching marriage of the tiny couple, Thumb and Warren, we have no lack of sensation stock.

General Thumb's marriage is on all lips, and it promises to be an uncommon event in that line. The principal papers devote long articles to the affair; every detail is expatiated upon with the vivacity and lively style of the reporters; the bridal dress and trousseau, very magnificent and costly, are upon exhibition at Lorde & Taylors, the diamond set, valued at five thousand dollars, attracts hundreds of the curious to Ball & Blacks: the first families of the city are striving to be counted in among the invited guests; Thumb is petted; Miss Warren is showered with presents and congratulations; both are happy, Tom keeping by the side of his affianced every minute he can, and looking as proud as if he had conquered a kingdom instead of a maidens heart. The Rev. Bishop Potter assisted by Rev. Mr. Willy of Bridgeport, is to unite them in marriage on Tuesday the tenth of February in Trinity Chapel. After the wedding, a grand reception takes place at the Metropolitan hotel, the entire first floor being secured for the occasion. Of course as the last days of Miss Warren's engagement with Barnum wane, the Museum is crowded from morning till night, and the little Queen of Beauty is overthronged with guests and attention. The General declares himself annoyed at the publicity of his nuptials; but we venture to say his charming bride rather enjoys it. For, in her winning way she entertains her visitors, who wish her a pleasant journey through married life.

Let me dip my pen in sepulchral ink. Really we are treated with a spirit from Hades, who threatens to run riot with the sense of all our citizens. A certain house on Twenty-seventh street not down in the annals of political circles, has, since the first of January, been visited with an apparition, invulnerable, and mysterious. One room in which it holds its nightly orgies enjoys the name of being haunted. Considerable excitement is manifested. Various attempts are being made to solve the enigma, and many are the solutions put forth. But in fact his ghostship has a very suspicious air about him. And the house wherein he dwells when upon earth has no very good name or history to fall back upon to substantiate the wonderful statements circulated. The ghost is represented as a serious thoughtful man, appearing and disappearing with truly supernatural power, and causing consternation generally. If I should express my opinion of it I would be very apt to do it in one word—humbug! Until proof positive is shown believe me much of a sceptic. This week may witness some developements. Ghost or no ghost he comes to the light.

"Perley" writes to the Journal that the President looks haggard and care-worn—who wonders at it?—yet he preserves his good nature, and some new story or bon mot from him is always in circulation. The last was uttered on Saturday at the public reception, when a Western Paymaster in full Major's attire was introduced, and said: "Being here, Mr. Lincoln, I thought I'd call and pay my respects." "From the complaints of the soldiers," responded the President, "I guess that's about all any of you do pay."

A wonderful instance of rescue from drowning occurred at Athens on Tuesday. The facts, as we have gathered, are these:

A boy about eight years old fell into a hole in the Athens channel, a short distance from the new ice house which is building. He was seen to go down, and the alarm was given. While some ran towards the spot others had the presence of mind to run in the opposite direction to the tool house, three hundred feet off, for an ice chisel.—The ice was new and transparent, and they found the boy was lying upon his back on the top of the water, floating along under the ice. A hole was made, but he passed one side and they could not reach him. A second and third hole, further down was made, but with no better success. But through the fourth hole, which for want of time was made very small, a young man thrust his arm and caught him. The ice was cut away, and he was taken out, not only alive but sensious, and was soon entirely restored. The little fellow was taken out with his hand tightly clasped over his mouth and nose, so that not a drop of water had entered the body.—Hudson. (N. Y.) Star.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

(under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has prudent reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS,

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications into form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of the Patent Office.

EDMOND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment

FOR HORSES

Is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

WASHINGTON ITEMS,

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.

The Times' dispatch states that Gen. Couch succeeds Sumner, and W. F. Smith succeeds Franklin.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch states that the Senate has ordered inquiry which will undoubted have the effect to discourage or squelch the business of giving the Intelligencer a monopoly of certain departmental news and then paying for its publication as an advertisement. Upon the arrival of General Butler at New Orleans to resume command of the Department of the Gulf, General Banks will be ordered to Texas at the head of a sufficient force, for the purpose of assisting the Union men of that State to restore it to the Union as a free Commonwealth. Thus the original plan of the Banks' Expedition will be carried into operation.

FROM NEW ORLEANS

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.

The New Orleans Delta of the Sixteenth States: We learn by passengers from Greenwich yesterday that an engagement took place yesterday between General Weitzels forces and the rebels.—At the time the train left it was reported that the Unionists had killed six and captured 40 of the rebels. Heavy cannonading was heard afterwards which indicated, that the gunboats were busily engaged. The Delta also received the following dispatch:

BERWICKS BAY, Jan. 15th 1863.

I have just learned the particulars of an affair of some importance which took place yesterday. Early in the day Commander Buchanan went up the Teche with the Calhoun until he came to the obstructions placed in the channel by the rebels. At this point unluckily the gunboats got aground. Commander Buchanan however it is said went forward some distance and was shot through the heart, from one of the rido pits near. A man named Whitehurst also belonging to the Calhoun was killed at the same time. Col. Thomas of the 8th Vermont hearing the firing ordered his regiment to charge the pits which resulted in the capture of thirty rebels and the dispersion of the rest. I have been told that six rebels were killed.

I learn on good authority that the Captain of the rebel gunboat Cotton was killed and it is also reported that the boat is captured.

The funeral of Com. Buchanan took place on the sixteenth. A letter from off Galveston states:—The rebel fortifications at Galveston are formidable. The rebel steamer supposed to have been the Alabama may possibly have been the Oreto from Mobile. She was at that point at the last accounts ready for sea under command of Captain John Newland Maffit formerly of the United Navy. She was waiting an opportunity to run the blockade and probably succeeded. It is also surmised that the cruiser may have been the Harriet Lane but we have no account of her escape from Galveston.

AN ENGLISH BLOCKADE RUNNER CAPTURED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.

The Key West correspondence of the Herald states that the neutral British Blockade running Steamer Antonicca with a cargo of powder from England was captured off Mobile by the steamer Pocahontas.

ARMY AND NAVY ITEMS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.

Admiral Paulding has gone to Washington. A Suffolk, Va., letter of the 24th states that three deserters came into camp this morning from the rebel forces and reported that they belonged to the 54th Virginia Regt. that their regiment came from Floyd county, Western Virginia, three weeks ago. These deserters did not hear of any fighting in North Carolina but had learned that the North Carolina regiments have been withdrawn from Pryor's command at Franklin.

At Franklin the rebels have three regts. of infantry, a battalion and several pieces of artillery and some cavalry. Gen. Beger, A. Pryor is still at Franklin and in command there. A letter from Hampton Roads states that the new Merrimac that was reported to be a failure has been showing herself lately at the mouth of the James River on the look out no doubt for a chance to "Nobble," some of our fleet—but experience has taught our people to keep a bright look-out, and not trust to reports circulated by the rebels for the purpose of putting them off their guard. If the Merrimac should venture out she will meet with a warm reception from the iron-clad Patapsco.

$500 WILL BE FORFEITED BY DR. L. DIX if failing to cure in less time than any other physician, more effectually and permanently, with less restraint from occupation or fear of exposure to all weather, with safe and pleasant medicines.

SELF-ABUSE AND SOLITARY HABITS,
Their effects and consequences;

SECRET AND DELICATE DISORDERS;

Mercurial Affections; Eruptions and all Diseases of the Skin; Ulcers of the Nose, Throat and Body; Pimples on the Face; Swellings of the Joints; Nervousness; Constitutional and other Weaknesses in Youth, and the more advanced, at all ages, of BOTH SEXES, SINGLE OR MARRIED.

DR. L. DIX'S

PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,

21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass.,

is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the ONLY entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.

boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he

IS THE ONLY REGULAR GRADUATE PHYSICIAN ADVERTISING IN BOSTON.

SIXTEEN YEARS

engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to

STRANGERS AND TRAVELLERS.

To avoid and escape Imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, most numerous in Boston than other large cities, promptly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, attained through so long experience, practice and observation.

DR. L. DIX

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

be not robbed and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of

FOREIGN AND NATIVE QUACKS,

who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and care as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown: not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines by the dozen, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effect of different herbs and plants, and sell the all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cured," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS,

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon Mercury, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specifics, Antidotes, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is transported in various ways throughout the land; but, ALAS! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and needlessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

charges are very moderate. Communications sacredly confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

Medicines.

"COPYRIGHT SECURED."

GREAT INDIAN REMEDY

FOR FEMALES.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine, possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, and proving effected after all others have failed, is designed for both married and single ladies, and is the very best thing known for the purpose, as it will bring on the monthly visitors in cases of obstruction, from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain.

OVER 2000 BOTTLES

have now been sold

without a single failure, when taken as directed, and without the least injury to health in any case. ☞It is put up in bottles of three different strengths, with full directions for using, and sent by express, closely sealed, to all parts of the country.

Prices—Full strength, $10; half strength, $5; quarter strength, $3 per bottle.

☞Remember! This medicine is designed expressly for OBSTINATE CASES, which all other remedies of the kind have failed to cure; also that it is warranted as represented IN EVERY RESPECT, or the price will be refunded.

☞BEWARE OF IMITATIONS! None genuine and warranted unless purchased directly of Dr. M., or at his office. ☞Accommodations for Ladies wishing to remain in the city a short time for treatment.

Dr. Mattison's Diuretic Compound,

For Acute and Chronic Gonorrhœa.

This new remedy contains neither Balsam, Copaiva Spirits of Nitre, Cubebs, Turpentine, or any other nauseous drugs, but is an elegant vegetable liquid, pleasant to the taste and smell, grateful to the stomach, cooling, cleansing and healing in its operation and speedily allaying all heat and irritation in the urinary passage. You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiva, either in capsules or mixtures, for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your breath and clothes are filled with its vile odor; throw away the disgusting mixtures, and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

☞ONE BOTTLE, WITHIN EASILY WEEKS, WILL OFTEN EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.—Price $2.00.

Dr. Mattison's Anti-Syphilitic Syrup,

For Constitutional Syphilis.

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its use every form of constitutional syphilitic taint is speedily cured, and in a few weeks the subtle poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

☞It was this remedy that cured, in a few weeks a gentleman from the South, then stopping at Newport, and for which he presented Dr. M. with $100 besides his bill, after having been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for FIVE YEARS.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will often effect a perfect cure. Price, $10; half size, $5.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator,

For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Gloomy Apprehensions, Despondency and Melancholy, which may end in Loss of Reason.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from venereal excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect antidote for this obstinate and distressing class of maladies ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the untold sufferings of hundreds who have never seen the inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Price—Quart bottle, which lasts a month, $10; half size, $5.

☞These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and as now prepared they are known to be the very best for their respective purposes, and I am therefore induced to make them public for the mutual benefit of myself and the sick who otherwise could never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the price will be refunded.

☞Prepared and sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, rear No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

☞It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone; and that, too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, without inquiry, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter what his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally; giving full information, with the most unbiased references and testimonials without which no advertising physician, or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

☞Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address plainly, and direct to DR. MATTISON as above. d18-1y

THE SPECIFIC PILL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR

Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

This Malady, the terrible consequences of which are too well known to require more than a bare allusion to them, is one of the most insidious, and therefore dangerous, of all the long catalogue of human ills. DYSPEPSIA & FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Pschycology, &c. This remarkable remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia, and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and an aura or aromatic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative repulsion of its atomical electro-magnetical principles, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.

$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c., NOW for sale by me as pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.

Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," that no one can be had from the vineyards in France, or from any part of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge chemical contradiction, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "if never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in these United States.

WM. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.

N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the genuine article is rather less, than more, than is NOW charged for the loathsome labeled bottled compounds so extensively sold all over country. Mch 30 1y

CURE THAT COUGH OF YOURS.

Use the best, safest, and cheapest Remedy the world has ever produced.

ONLY 13 & 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S

GREAT COUGH REMEDY.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy but comfortant,—warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and others.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!!—Do not be persuaded to purchase articles at 4s. to $1, which do not contain the virtues of a 13 ct. Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is less great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 13 cts., and the large bottles at 25 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Store-keepers at 13 cts. and in larger bottles at 25 cts.
